Radio Drive

Raises $1250

For Charity

The Jaycees of 10 Western Massachusetts and Northern Connecticut communities, disc jockey's from WHYN Radio and the residents of the area combined to pledge $1250 for Multiple Sclerosis in a 20-hour period which ended at 6 p.m. Saturday.

John Claggett of Longmeadow, project chairman for the Jaycees first M.S. radio fund drive, said the drive began at 10 p.m. Friday on radio station WHYN.

Participating in the radioathon for multiple sclerosis were Jaycees from Agawam, Amherst, Gardner, Greenfield, Holyoke, Ludlow, Northampton, Springfield, Westfield and Enfield, Conn.

The men answered phoned-in pledges throughout the four Western Massachusetts Counties and Northern Connecticut in four hour shifts, Claggett said.

Mattoon-Elliot Association Hires Realtors

The Mattoon-Elliot Streets Neighborhood Historic Preservation Association has hired Stearns and Yerrall, Inc., realtors, to help attract apartment owners and tenants to participate in the restoration of the neighborhood.

Atty. Eugene B. Berman, president of the association, met with representatives of the realty company and they agreed to prepare a brochure to send prospective clients concerning the merits of the restoration area.

Berman said Scott M. Stearns, Jr., a consultant to the realty company, plans to purchase a house in the restoration area sometime in the near future. Stearns has had experience in restoration projects on Nantucket Island and in Longmeadow, Berman said.

second phase of the Mattoon - Elliot Streets restoration involves active restoration of the streets and individual properties.

"Our present efforts must now be expended in the restoration of the area, procuring cobblestone streets, brick sidewalks, gas lights and gates," he said.
