DEAREST DADDY
The Lord called you daddy dear
Your life on this earth no longer is here
But into your linage he also brought
A new born son who loves you a lot.
Don't worry daddy dear, the burden I'll ease
Your load was to heave
Your heart all to please
A special request you asked from above
It was grained with all His love
I'll carry your name
And when the Lord wishes
I'll pray that my exit will be as you wish it And who knows perhaps

I too may have a son, to carry on when my days are done
Don't worry about sister or mother dear.
I'll take care of them just as though you were here. were hero.

I'll tr; my beat to ease the pain
And lighten the hearts that love you for you did not die in vain
Grandpa and Grandma will again see.
Their beloved son Charlie as you were in

Their beloved son where as you me.

My aunts and my uncles will call r
